At the town meeting, Tuesday evhalf of several of his neighbors, who live on the western side of Main street, d that the town empower the se ectmen to establish a curb line on that lectmen to establish a curb line on that street from Broad street to Church, or past the Congregational church. He wished this to be done that the property owners along the street might know how far to project their lawns. To this request F. E. Conine objected, on the ground that a curb line would apoil the looks of the street. He was of the opinion that Judge Curtis did not really know what he wanted. Most not really know what he wanted. Hamilton, of Hartford and Simsbury, was in town, visiting the family of Mrs. Ida Falken, on King street. Donald Falken has also been in town for several days past, running up to New Haven on business in the morning, and coming back at night. He is a promoter for the Pulman car, com-

Dany.

The Senior Class of the Stratford High School has issued very neat invitations for its commencement exercises this evening, at 8 o'clock, at the Congregational church.

Edward Bland of Detroit, Mich., brother-in-law of Geo. Keeler Wilson, is visiting his relatives in town.

Maj. Bonestean Camp, the auxiliary is visiting his relatives in town.

Maj. Bonestean Camp, the auxiliary of the U. S. W. V. held one of its most enjoyable meetings on Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Ricket on Barnum avenue. A full quorum attended and five applications for membership were voted upon. An apron and necktie sociable is to be held soon. The next regular meeting will be held on July 13, at the house of Mrs. Maguire in Bridgeport.

on July 13, at the house of Mrs. Maguire in Bridgeport.

Some weeks ago it was announced that Arden L. Judd would deliver the address at the graduation exercises of the High School this evening, but this proves not to be the case for it is now published that Dr. Jason L. Phillips, of the Church of the Redeemer of New Haven will be the speaker. Mr. Phillips will speak upon "Five Feet of Cutture," a subject which doubtless refers to Ex-President Eliot's recent statement that he could name books which would fill a shelf five feet long, which if a man would read he might consider himself educated. There will be solos by William Tomlinson, and Dr. Wm. B. Cogawell will present the solos by William Tomlinson, and Wm. B. Cogswell will present the

There was a quiet wedding in Bridgeport yesterday evening, of some interest to local people, the groom being Thomas Wilkes, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Wilkes of Long Brook avenue, who works in the Bachellor Corset factory. He married Miss Elizabeth Horschler of Arch street. The happy pair have gone to Boston for a romantic honeymoon. When they return they will live on Long Brook avenue, that getting to be the fashionable street of the town.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lovell are now taking in fresh draughts of cool air in the Adirondacks.

On the 3rd of July Mr. and Mrs. Ed.

The bearers at the recent funeral of Tillott Kenney, whose remains were brought to town from Ithaca, W. Y., were Clarence Goodell, Newton Reed, Lorenzo Beers, Arden L. Judd. William B. Bristol and Henry P. Stags.

In to date it is decidedly uncertain whether the town will vote to spend $15,000 upon its achool buildings. The resolution to do so was laid upon the table, and may never be taken up. Meanwhile an effort will be made to ascertain the views of tax payers on the subject.

Next Tuesday afternoon there is to be a strawberry and cream lawn party on the grounds of the Method'st church.

The authoress, Mrs. Ellen Olney Kirk, who once lived in the Cogswell house, is visiting in town.

The figures showing the cost of the town's educational establishment from 1904 to 1908 inclusive: In 1904 the grand list of the tewn was $1,548,615; the amount of tax was $26,327, and the sum spent for the schools was $12,839. The amount of tax was $26,327, and the sum spent for the schools was $12,839. The next year, 1905, the grand list amounted to $2,458,372. The amount of the tax was $28,273, and of this $14,841 went for the schools. In 1906, the grand list was $2,570,652, and the schools cost $15,703. In 1907, the grand list was $2,557,198. The tax amounted to $30,557, and the schools cost $18,027. Last year the grand list had reached the sum of $2,772,707. The tax was $31,836, and the bill for the schools was $18,124. Conbill for the schools was $18,124. Considerably more than half the money raised by the town is for schools. Extensive plans are being made by the regatta committee of the Pootatuck Yacht Club for the celebration of In-dependence Day on July 5 at their club house on the Housatonic. A fine program of aquatic events has been program of aquatic events has been arranged and a large number of entries have been secured. The club will give an excursion in launches to a point selected on the banks of the river quite a distance up stream, after which there will be a luncheon served at the club house.

The program follows, starting promptly at 2 o'clock:
Sailing race (handicap), duck race, ower boat race launches under 34 orse power, blindfolded race, ladles ingle oar race, canoe jousting contest, power boat race(boats over % horse power, double oars skiff race tub race for boys under 16 years, swimming race 100 yards, single oar race for men, % mile, obstacle swimming race, tug of war between hunches under 31% thorse power. A prize will be given for the best decorated boat of any kind and all sorts of boats are eligible in this. A meeting of the committee will be held again on Wednesday evening of this week and the plans further

STEEPLECHASE ISLAND COOL Steeplechase Island, the resort where "cooling breezes always blow," is the one place in this vicinity to escape the heat. The temperature being so much lower there and the refreshing breezes make it a haven of rest for the heated populace. The tide is high afternoons this week and the water is unusally warm for this time of the season. Then there are free feature acts, two performances being given daily by the famous high diving horses, at 4 and 8:30 and the sensational death defring feat of Dare Devil Dash, at

BIG CIRCUS IS DUE TOMORROW

At Dawn Will Arrive Four Trains of 85 Cars Each, Bringing 1,280 People,650 Horses, 40 Elephants and Wonders

The really big circus of the world is coming tomorrow. It is styled Ringling Brothers' World's Greatest Shows and reviews of it in New York, Brooklyn and Philadelphia would seem to convey the impression that this show lives right up to its title.

Tomorrow morning along about dawn of day the show trains will reach this city. There are four of these trains, eighty-five cars in all. These trains carry 1 280 people; 650 horses, 40 elephants and other animal burdens that their streets curbed, and this is the universal practice in Washington, the handsomest city in the world.

One of the amusing incidents of the recent town meeting was the objection made to the bringing of children into the center to go to school, by a phants and other animal burdens that make for space and value. When all the tents are spread twelve acres of ground will be covered. This circus will give with every package they sell their personal guarantee to refund the with a well regulated village except a charter.

By seven o'clock in the morning the

One of the amusing incidents of the recent town meeting was the objection made to the bringing of children into the center to go to school, by a bachelor, who presumably, has no children to educate.

Yesterday a citizen suggested that the two upper floors of the Town hall might be profitably used for school rooms, and save the expense of a new building. It is said the income to the town from the rents of these floors to secret societies, is but $300 annually.

On Thesday, Attorney James E. On Thesday, Attorney James E. Hamilton, of Hartford and Simsbury, was in town, visiting the family of the animal dens will be open to view and that the 1,200 performers and mysted Falken has also been in town for employees connected with the show will have some part in the pageant.

There will be six bands, cages containing llons, tigers, bears, panthers, wovles, monkeys, deer, antelope and hundreds of other denizens of jungle and hundreds of other denizens of jungle month.

Convenietnly interspersed will be elephants, 25 camels and six zebras on foot. Mounted bands of Arabs, hunfoot. dreds of mounted performers in hunt-ing costume, paraders dressed as Mexing costume, paraders dressed as Mexicans, soldiers and ancient Romans, clowns on wagons and dozens of other features contribute to the magnitude of the exhibition.

Immediately after the conclusion of the march, the big tents will throw open their flaps and from two o'clock in the afternoon until tomorrow night, joy will reign supreme in "boy and girl land" and other places to, where kneep pants and short dresses are no longer, au fait. au fait.

pants and short dresses are no longer, au fait.

Never before has a circus been received with such enthusiasm as this one has been arousing all along the line. Its new parade, a complete new outfit of tents, a horde of the best of Europe's artists, a new spectacle and a complete memagerie, it is little wonder that Ringling Brothers knocked New York a twister.

All last winter workmen were busy in the circus mills at Baraboo, Wis. constructing new railroad cars and ring properties and building the canvas pavilions and new grand stands. The management is more than ever looking to the comfort of its patrons as well as to their entertainment.

No other circus has ever made more than one thriller, and some of them than one thriller, and some of them not even that. Upon that one feature, it has been the custom to center all their advertising energy, looking to it in the Adirondacks.

On the 3rd of July Mr. and Mrs. Edward J. Colborne will sail for Europe.

Mrs. Elliott W. Peck has recently entertained on Embroidery club.
